Excerpt: .so great, and the horse so slow, that I suffered greatly with cold, and my jaws were almost locked before I reached the fire, and it seemed as though I could put myself against the hot stove without burning. This led me to send for a pair of baptizing pants, costing sixteen dollars, and as I have had to baptize so many, they have paid their cost already. I baptized nearly one hundred and forty that Conference year. While these revivals were going on all around, our meeting-house at Whiting was being finished. By faith in the blessed Jesus I was able to get the money to pay the bills and secure all the materials, and carpet the pulpit, altar, and aisles. When the painter was painting it he wanted the liberty to fresco it, and the head workman, I. II. Estey, said he...
