Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Calendar of State Papers, Colonial Series: America and West Indies, March, 1720 to December, 1721, Preserved in the Public Record Office At the end of February, 1720, the Spaniards from Havana delivered their long delayed attack upon the Bahama Islands. But when they appeared off New Providence, they found Governor Woodes Rogers and H.M.S. Flamborough ready to receive them. They made several attempts to land, but were repulsed. However, they were expected to return shortly in greater force, and in response to an appeal for assistance from Rogers, Commodore Vernon sailed from Jamaica with H.M.S. Mary and Ludlow Castle, intending to cruise off Havana and prevent the Spanish ships from coming out. He refused to go to Nassau on the grounds that there there s no water for me. Rogers, undaunted and scenting a prize, informed the Commodore that, if he could block up the enemy, he would bring some men and kships from the Bahamas, and join in an attach upon Havana (35, 47, 47 i-iv). It had been expected that the Spanish armadilia...
